Seasonal change in the hourly length of daytime. Since the daytime duration varied with the seasons, this also meant that the length of the hour changed, with shorter hours in winter and longer hours in summer. The Romans also understood that the length of daytime depended on latitude. At mediterranean latitude, one hour was only about 45 minutes on the winter solstice, but about 75 minutes on ...

Historical dimensions for the cubit are provided by scripture and pyramid documentation. Additional dimensions from the Middle East are found in other early documents. Two major dimensions emerge from a history of the cubit. The first is the anthropological or short cubit, and the second is the architectural or long cubit. The wide geographical area and long chronological period suggest that ...
